FYI

WHEMS - Ms. Zavarack's art students were offered the opportunity to participate on a field trip provided by the Hazleton Art League. Fourteen (14) students (planned at least) will attend the Everhart Art Museum in Scranton to experience the Raught and Superheroes exhibit. Their admission, along with a guided tour, is covered by a grant provided by the Pennsylvania Council of the Arts that we (the Hazleton Art League) received. We will be providing transportation and lunches for the students.
Since this is not a HASD activity we (the Hazleton Art League) have an additional writer on our insurance to cover this trip and will require the parents to sign a waiver. We're thrilled about the opportunity to show a great museum to students that may not have access to these kinds of trips on their own and are very excited to meet everyone.
