

Dad's Game

They played some more.
Then Dad said, "You can look now.
We are back at our brown house."
"That wasn't boring at all!" said
Howie.

④

Howie and Dad have a long ride home.
"I do not like the bus ride," said
Howie.
"It is so boring."

①

“We can play a game,” Dad said. “Don’t look and guess where we are. I will give clues.” Howie didn’t look.

②

“I see swings and a slide,” said Dad. “Where are we now?” “It’s the town park. Wow!” shouted Howie.

③

Name _____

A. Reread “Dad’s Game.” Then write “problem,” “step to a solution,” or “solution” below each sentence.

1. Howie and Dad have a long ride home.

2. Dad says, “We can play a game.”

3. “We are back at our brown house,” said Dad.

B. Work with a partner. Read the passage aloud. Pay attention to expression. Stop after one minute. Fill out the chart.

	Words Read	–	Number of Errors	=	Words Correct Score
First Read		–		=
Second Read		–		=

Name _____

A. Reread “Dad’s Game.” Think about how the author used Problem and Solution. Use the word “problem” or “solution” to complete the sentence.

1. On page 1, the author tells about a

Howie has.

2. On page 2, the author tells us about Dad’s

B. Use clues the author gives to answer the questions.

3. What is Howie’s problem?

4. How is Howie’s problem solved?

5. How does the solution help?

