

Chapter 20 Guided Notes

1. Define Sexually Transmitted Disease
2. What does asymptomatic mean?
3. What are 2 risks of teen sexual activity?
4. What does epidemic mean?
5. How are STD's spread?
6. Why are babies born to teens more likely to suffer from health problems?
7. What should you do if you suspect you have an STD?
8. Why is teen pregnancy hard on the mother's health?
9. What are 5 ways that teens can protect themselves from STD's?
10. What age group has the highest rate of Chlamydia on page 481?
11. Why is a teenager more at risk of being infected with an STD than an adult?
12. List 4 STD's and explain what causes them.
13. Why are females more susceptible to get an STD?
14. Name 3 high-risk behaviors that put a teen at risk for an STD?
15. How many teen pregnancies happen each year?
16. What is the ratio of sexually active teens that have an STD?
17. List 2 reasons STD's in teens are considered a "silent epidemic"?
18. What is the difference between an STD caused by a bacteria and those that are caused by a virus?
19. Many teens think that having a baby will bring only pleasure to their lives and make them the center of attention. Imagine you are a parent at your age, list some realities about caring for a infant 24 hours a day.

Common STD's

Disease: Chlamydia

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment:

Disease: Pelvic Inflammatory Disease (PID)

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment:

Disease: Gonorrhea

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment:

Disease: Syphilis

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment:

Disease: Genital Warts - HPV

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment:

Disease: Genital Herpes

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment:

Disease: Hepatitis B and C

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment:

Disease: Public Lice

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment:

Disease: Scabies

Caused by:

Spread through:

Symptoms:

Treatment: