Mrs. Kasarda

- Hi again everyone, I am Mrs. Kasarda and I look forward to Handwriting class!
- It is important to learn and practice lowercase and uppercase letters in cursive, working through the alphabet.
- Practicing once a day and challenging yourself to write long sentences or paragraphs in cursive will greatly help to improve your handwriting.

Our Mission

In our classroom we will work hard to create a quiet, happy learning environment. We will achieve our goals, we will be successful, and we will try our best every day.

Our Website

Microsoft Teams:

- We will use Microsoft Teams to navigate through our day, from one class to the next.
- Through Microsoft Teams our daily meetings will be held, we will complete assignments together and on our own, and take quizzes and tests.
- You will find all documents, assignments, agendas, conversations and my announcements on Microsoft Teams.
- MICROSOFT TEAMS is OUR CLASSROOM!

Handwriting

- Handwriting class is on Fridays, third period.
- We will work on a letter a week.
- We will start with the upper case and lower case letter A.
- There is no homework in Handwriting.
- There are no tests or quizzes in Handwriting.
- It will become easier the more you practice.

Homework

The only homework in
Handwriting is to never stop

PRACTICING!

Classwork

- Classwork will be assigned through Microsoft Teams.

- Complete all assignments to the best of your ability.

Grading

All Handwriting assignments will be graded according to the following policy:

Late Work Policy

- When a student has not completed classwork/homework by the given due date it will be accepted up to (2) school days past the original due date.
- After the 2nd day, the work will no longer be accepted and a score of a (0) for the given assignment will be reflected in the student's grade average.
- It is the students responsibility to hand the work in. I will not chase after it.
- Students will not be allowed to complete extra credit at the end of a marking period in order to raise their earned grades.

Make Up Work

- When a student is absent from school they may have two school days for every one day of absence in order to make up the missed assignments.
 - Example: If your child is absent on Wednesday and returns on Thursday he/she will have until Monday to hand in the missed work.
 - Day 1-Thursday: Work on make-up work.
 - Day 2-Friday: Work on make-up work.
 - Day 3-Monday: Hand in work.
- If the student is unable to complete the work within the two days, the student will receive a (0) for those assignments.
