

"Look at all those hats! Who wants one?" asked Hen.

"I do!" cried Horse. "It's smart to wear a hat. A hat will keep the sun out of my eyes."

Hen stuck her head in the box. She pulled out a flat, round hat. "Try this hat," Hen told Horse.

"No, that hat is too flat," said Horse.

"A flat hat makes a good nest!" clucked Hen. So she took the hat and she marched away.

Cat poked her head in the box.
She pulled out a thick yarn hat.
"Try this hat!" Cat told Horse.

"No, that hat is too thick," said Horse.
