

The Party

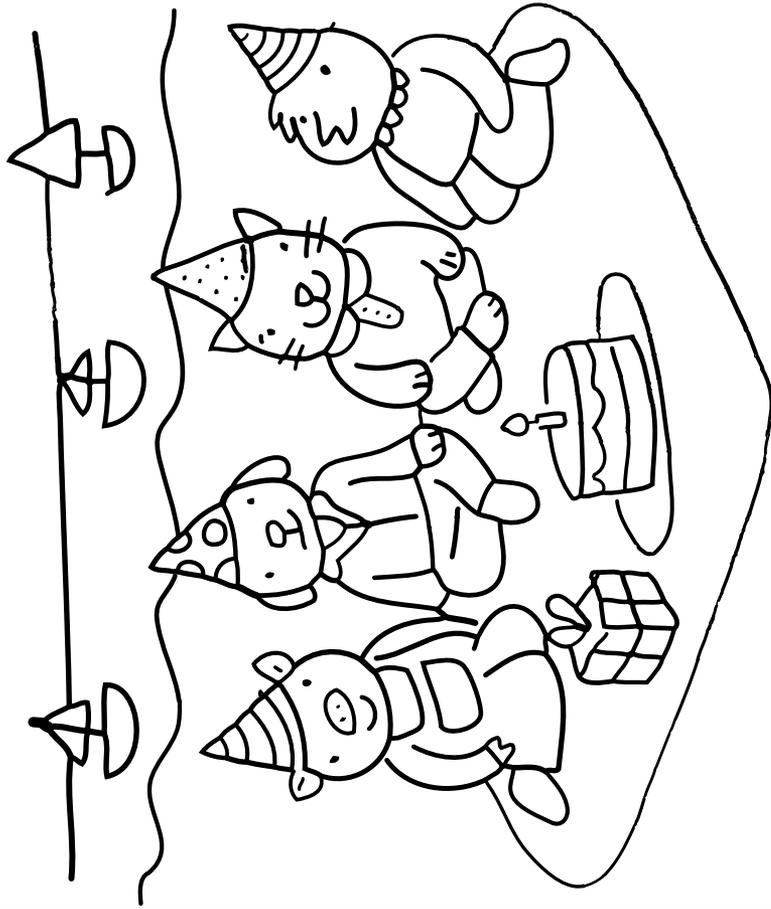

Then the pals went for a swim.
“You are great pals!” said Cat.
They had fun, fun, fun in the sun!

④

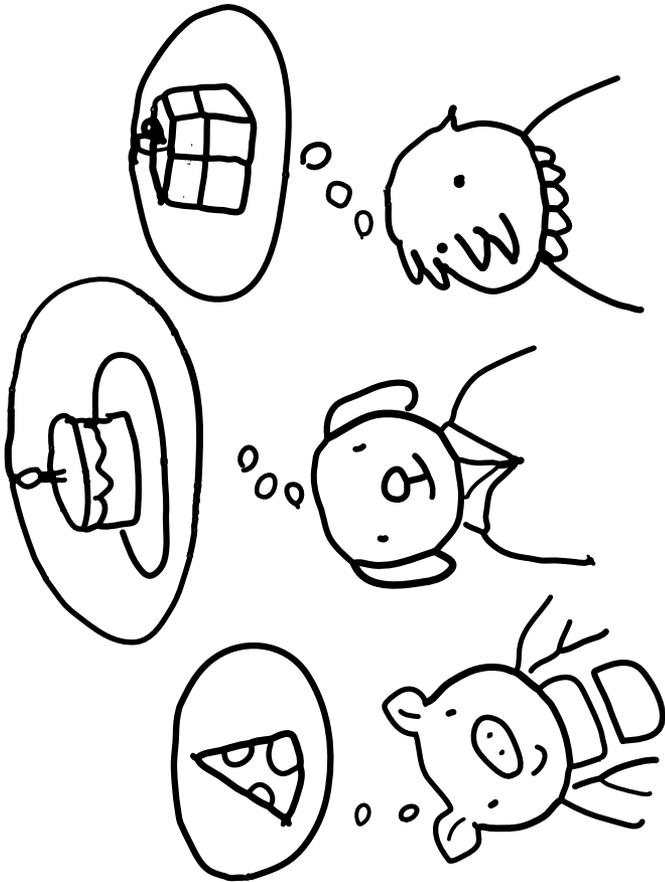

“I am six today,” laughed Cat.
“Let’s have a party.”
“Let’s have it at the beach,”
said her pals. “It is not far.”

①

The four pals went to the beach.
 They put on party hats. They ate cake. Cat opened her gift and card.

③

“I will bring hats!” said Pig.
 “I will bake a cake!” said Dog.
 “I will make a gift and card!”
 said Chick.

②

Name _____

A. Reread “The Party.” Think about each character’s point of view. Answer the questions.

1. Why did Cat want to have a party?

2. How can you tell Dog, Pig, and Chick want to have a party?

3. Did the pals like the party? How can you tell?

B. Work with a partner. Read the passage aloud. Pay attention to fluency. Stop after one minute.

	Words Read	–	Number of Errors	=	Words Correct Score
First Read		–		=
Second Read		–		=

Copyright © The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.