

“The Technology of Mesopotamia”

- (1st) Copy the definition,
(2nd) sample sentence and
(3rd) make your own sample sentence)

1. artifact      An artifact is a human-made object, usually from a particular period in history.
                         We examined the ancient artifact to figure out how it was made.
2. communal      Something that is communal is shared by a group.
                         At the picnic, we all ate together at a communal table.
3. derived      When something is derived from a source, it can be traced back to its origin.
                         Lemonade is derived from lemons.
4. inscription      An inscription is something that is written, engraved, carved, or painted as a lasting record.
                         The inscription that goes with her statue quotes one of her famous speeches.
5. millennium      A millennium is a period of 1,000 years.
                         After ten centuries, a new millennium began in the year 2000.
6. stationery      Stationery is writing paper or envelopes.
                         Kyle wrote formal thank-you notes on special stationery.
7. utilize      To utilize something is to use it.
                         You should utilize all tools safely.
8. yields      Yields are the amounts or quantities of something produced or grown, such as crops.
                         Farmers use special plant food to increase crop yields.

“The Technology of Mesopotamia”

- (1st) Copy the definition,
(2nd) sample sentence and
(3rd) make your own sample sentence)

1. artifact      An artifact is a human-made object, usually from a particular period in history.
                         We examined the ancient artifact to figure out how it was made.
2. communal      Something that is communal is shared by a group.
                         At the picnic, we all ate together at a communal table.
3. derived      When something is derived from a source, it can be traced back to its origin.
                         Lemonade is derived from lemons.
4. inscription      An inscription is something that is written, engraved, carved, or painted as a lasting record.
                         The inscription that goes with her statue quotes one of her famous speeches.
5. millennium      A millennium is a period of 1,000 years.
                         After ten centuries, a new millennium began in the year 2000.
6. stationery      Stationery is writing paper or envelopes.
                         Kyle wrote formal thank-you notes on special stationery.
7. utilize      To utilize something is to use it.
                         You should utilize all tools safely.
8. yields      Yields are the amounts or quantities of something produced or grown, such as crops.
                         Farmers use special plant food to increase crop yields.