

Topic 10.1
A New Global Conflict

1. As World War II came to an end, the _____ and the _____ emerged as superpowers.
2. Amidst the rubble of war, a new power struggle and global conflict emerged known as the _____.
3. As the Soviet Union pushed German forces out of Eastern Europe, it left behind occupying forces and put in place pro-Soviet _____ governments.
4. Europe became divided into an “eastern” and “western” _____. In the East were the _____-dominated, communist countries of Eastern Europe. In the West were the Western democracies led by the U.S.
5. Following World War II, _____ was split into two parts. The capital, _____, was divided into four zones of occupation.
6. In a speech in 1946, Winston Churchill announced that “an _____ had descended across the Continent.”
7. Under the _____, the United States vowed to help nations that were threatened by Communism.

