

“To the Top of Everest” and “The Voyage”

STORY VOCABULARY

destination

- ▶ noun
- ▶ the place to which someone or something is headed
- ▶ The squirrel ran down the tree and across the grass to reach its destination, a pile of acorns under a bush.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the slide towards the right.

devour

- ▶ Verb
- ▶ to eat hungrily and fast; to swallow something whole
- ▶ Our dog can devour his food in a few seconds.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the slide towards the right.

enchanted

- ▶ Adjective
- ▶ magical
- ▶ The story was about a wizard who turned a prince into an enchanted frog.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the page towards the right.

embers

- ▶ Noun
- ▶ glowing bits of wood or coal that remain after a fire dies down
- ▶ The orange embers of the fire glowed among the ashes.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the page towards the text.

outline

- ▶ Noun
- ▶ a line around the edges of a thing that shows its shape
- ▶ I put my hand on a piece of paper and traced around it with a pencil to make an outline.

previously

- ▶ Adverb
- ▶ Earlier; before
- ▶ Max enjoyed the movie even though he had seen it previously a few times.

scenic

- ▶ Adjective
- ▶ offering views of a landscape that is beautiful and interesting
- ▶ The train traveled through a scenic valley, where snow-covered mountains rose up from green forests on both sides of the track.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the page towards the right.

solar

- ▶ Adjective
- ▶ using energy from the sun
- ▶ Mary's class is building a car that runs on solar power instead of gas.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the page towards the right.

ashore

- ▶ Adverb
- ▶ on or to the land or shore
- ▶ After riding in the boat all day, she is ready to go ashore to eat dinner at home.

consciousness

- ▶ Noun
- ▶ awareness of feelings and happenings around you
- ▶ When he returned to consciousness, he heard everyone cheering around him.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the slide towards the right.

correspondents

- ▶ Noun
- ▶ journalists who report the news from far away; people who exchange information with others
- ▶ Our newspaper pays correspondents to send in news from distant places.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the slide towards the right.

mob

- ▶ Noun
- ▶ any crowd; often used to mean a crowd that is not orderly
- ▶ He pressed through the mob of people to find his sister.

overboard

- ▶ Adjective
- ▶ over the side of a ship, usually into the water
- ▶ Enjoy your boat ride, but please do not litter by tossing trash overboard into the sea.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the page towards the right.

possess

- ▶ Verb
- ▶ to own a thing, or to have a quality or characteristic
- ▶ She does possess a talent for cooking because everything she makes tastes just great.

recover

- ▶ Verb
- ▶ to return to health; to get something back that was lost
- ▶ A policeman helped Jack recover his stolen bike.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the slide, creating a dynamic, abstract background.

restless

- ▶ Adjective
- ▶ unable to stop being active and relax
- ▶ After the race, I felt restless and could not sit down, so I walked around for a long time.

designated

- ▶ Verb
- ▶ identified; pointed out
- ▶ I was designated as the captain for our dodgeball team.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the page towards the right.

impervious

- ▶ Adjective
- ▶ not affected by something
- ▶ He was impervious to all the noise while independently completing his work.

saturation

- ▶ Noun
- ▶ state of being completely filled
- ▶ The towel was saturated with juice after cleaning up the spill.

A dark grey arrow points to the right from the left edge of the slide. Several thin, curved lines in shades of blue and grey originate from the left side and sweep across the slide towards the right.

inflicted

- ▶ Verb
- ▶ delivered something painful
- ▶ Bruises were inflicted upon him during the rough and competitive hockey game.