

The Story of Momma “C” Cat

Once upon a time there lived a mother cat who had six boys, their names were a,o,u and e,i and y. Momma “C” cat loved all of her sons but a, o and u were very loud and hard. Because they were so loud and hard, so she kept them very close to her. On the other hand e,i and y were very gentle and soft so she let them have more freedom.
