The screenshot displays a Microsoft OneNote Class Notebook interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with tabs for 'General', 'Posts', 'Files', 'Class Notebook', and 'Assignments'. The 'Class Notebook' tab is selected. Below this, there is a secondary navigation bar with 'Class' and 'Class notebook' tabs, and a search bar. The main content area shows a page titled 'Precalculus Syllabi'. The page content includes the following text:

OBJECTIVES: Pre-calculus is recommended for students who have done well in previous math courses and who have college ambitions where mat is utilized. This course provides a rich background for calculus, analytic geometry, linear algebra, as well as a course in functional analysis. Graphing is used to incorporate many of the concepts taught.
